

That pirated movie you just bought... cost someone her job.

Pirated Products Put Jobs At Risk.

See the video It Hurts

After twenty years as a gaffer-electrician, Beverly lost her job. She was one of many people "behind the scenes" who help make movies. Counterfeit CDs and DVDs, the ones bought cheap off the street, and illegal downloading of movies, music, packaged software and video games around the world cost the U.S. economy 373,000 jobs and $58 billion annually.

Counterfeits Hurt.
You Have the Power to Stop Them.

Avoid pirated products and protect U.S. jobs.
